THE ORIGIN

Nestled just off the Galle Road in the charming coastal town of Balapitiya, Villa Origin offers a secluded and stylish escape along Sri Lanka's scenic southern trail. Perfectly positioned between the serene Madu Ganga River and the expansive Indian Ocean, this hidden gem promises a tranquil and private retreat just 200 meters from the beach. It is approximately a two-hour scenic drive from Bandaranaike International Airport via the Southern Expressway, or accessible by train from Colombo's Fort Railway Station to Ambalangoda Railway Station followed by a short 5-minute tuk-tuk ride to the villa.

Origin Balapitiya features four beautifully designed rooms for a comfortable stay. The ground floor includes two Double Rooms with a cozy double bed, air-conditioning, en-suite bathroom, and an outdoor shower. The upper floor offers three rooms with double beds, air-conditioning, and en-suite bathrooms.

Guests can enjoy a swimming pool, a large garden, indoor and outdoor dining areas, a bar area, complimentary WiFi, and satellite TV with Netflix
